

Why aren't the local races for my area represented?

We don't know enough people willing to call all the candidates in every county. It is a very time-consuming project and should be done on a county by county basis. As much as possible, candidates are contacted by potential constituents. So far a volunteer county coordinator creates for the best way to expand into another country.