

What about Educational Service Units?

Educational Service Units (ESU's) were invented many years ago to provide shared educational resources for smaller school districts. For example a speech and language teacher could serve several schools in different districts as part of an ESU. For years, board members were elected by county or at large for each ESU. However, during the 2007 Legislative sessions, each ESU was divided into board districts. See map.