

What about Educational Service Units?

Educational Service Units (ESU's) were created by the Nebraska Legislature in 1965 to provide shared educational resources for smaller school districts. For example, a speech and language teacher could serve several schools in different districts as part of an ESU. There are currently 19 ESU's, each governed by an elected board. See map.